

A program of the National Writers Series
In Partnership with Traverse Area District Library

EN GARDE!

Battle of the Books is Back!

MAY YOUR JOURNEY BE EPIC

Calling all fourth and fifth graders in the Grand Traverse region.

It's time to get ready for Battle of the Books Grand Traverse, a super-fun and free reading competition.

Read, dream and imagine together with friends!

- A FREE T-SHIRT FOR EVERY READER • AWESOME STORIES AND TEAM BUILDING
- ALL TEAMS GET 10 FREE BOOKS AND THE CHANCE TO WIN PRIZES

THE DETAILS:

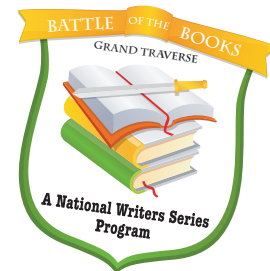

GET STARTED ON YOUR EPIC JOURNEY!

The first step is to come to the Battle of the Books information session:

3:30-4:30 pm, October 14

Traverse Area District Library, Woodmere

- Find out about this free & exciting reading program
- See how your child can get involved
- Hear from past battle team members and coaches
- Check out the role of coach or volunteer. You can do it, too!
- Get all the latest program news and changes
- Watch a short video from last year's battle

www.battleofthebooksgt.com

START FORMING YOUR TEAM NOW!

Now is the time to find some new and old friends and form a team. Each team must have four to six kids, and you will need a coach too. You do not need to attend the same school to form a team. The program is limited to 48 teams, so be ready to register on NOVEMBER 2, STARTING AT NOON, at www.battleofthebooksgt.com.