

You are invited to COME & VIEW

“The Big Picture”

Sunday, October 28, 1pm-3pm

Woodmere Library

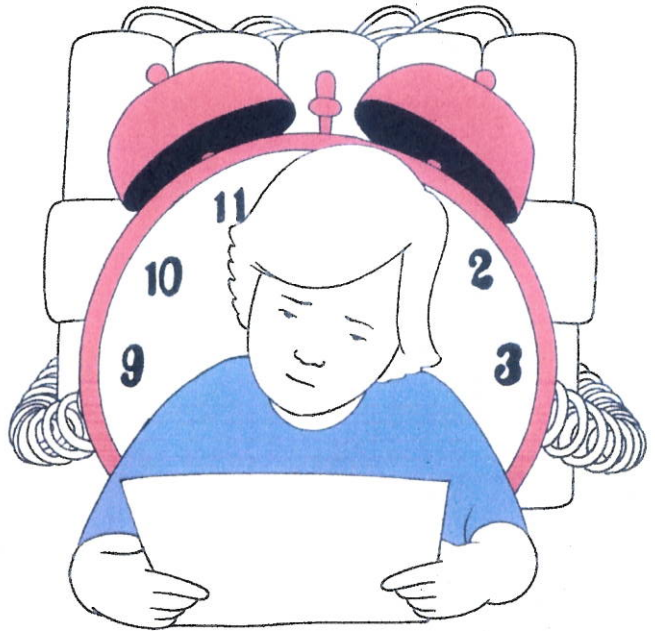

Traverse City, MI

FREE ADMISSION

Celebrating

National Dyslexia Awareness

with a panel discussion to follow

About the film:

The Big Picture, by James Redford, provides personal and uplifting accounts of the dyslexic experience from children, experts and icon leaders, such as Sir Richard Branson and financier Charles Schwab. It paints a picture of hope by proving dyslexia is a neurological issue and not a character flaw. Dyslexia, a persistent problem with learning to read, can be as great a gift as it sometimes is an obstacle.