WORDS FROM OTHERS ON TY:

Since the day I recruited Ty to play basketball at Oakland University, I always figured he would one day become a coach. As a player, Ty was what every coach would want. He played hard, smart, and was a great fan favorite. He was a “run the team” point guard; a coach on the floor who was instrumental in taking our team to NCAA tournaments. As a person, Ty is an outstanding young man who served as a role model for all our young fans. He is a great leader, knows the game, and can coach it.

A Note From Ty

I truly believe that the game of basketball is not only a great sport, but far more importantly it is a valuable teaching tool for lifelong lessons. Good things happen to those that have a positive attitude, do what is right, and work hard, all things we as individuals have complete control over. My staff and I will always do our best to instill these positive traits in all those that attend our basketball camps. We have a strong goal to make each day of camp a “MASTERPIECE” by making it a fun, disciplined learning experience for all. Participants will receive firsthand insight from individuals who know what it takes to improve and develop skills, both on and off the court. I can’t wait to lace them up with you & get our sweat on!

WORDS FROM OTHERS ON TY:

I have a high regard for Ty’s coaching & teaching ability & admire his enthusiasm, effort, & the time he has spent to help develop young athletes. He has strong work ethic & a desire to see his players succeed both in the classroom & on the court. He understands the game of basketball & the discipline and coaching it takes to win.

Men’s Basketball Coach

Northern Illinois University

Ty McGregor is a person with a great love for the game of basketball & a deep passion for teaching & building teams. Ty has a genuine enthusiasm for people & the ability to teach the game of basketball & its fundamental parts in a way that players understand.

As a player, Ty was a tremendous competitor who loved to train & prepare himself properly—he brings this same work ethic to any task with which he is involved. It comes as no surprise that Ty McGregor has earned such a high level of respect within the basketball community in the state of Michigan.

WORDS FROM OTHERS ON TY:

I’ve known Ty for over 20 years as a high school student-athlete who was being recruited to Oakland University to a student-athlete and a college graduate... Ty will inspire players to work hard on the game and will teach them to love even more than they already do the game and the self discipline that comes with aspiring to do their best, that will teach the many life lessons that are needed with all walks of their life.
